SOCONY DE-WAXED MOTOR OIL!

A NEW "high" on the thermometer these hot driving days does not affect Socony De-waxed Motor Oil! It is built specifically to keep its "body" and lubricate smoothly at the highest engine temperatures—at heat that makes ordinary motor oils lose their lubricating efficiency.

Socony's Indianapolis Test, the first such test to be run by an oil company on this famous speedway, conclusively proved that. Under A. A. A. supervision, three standard sedans were driven 7,290 miles each in 5½ blistering summer days and nights, round and round the Indianapolis Speedway.

In spite of mile-a-minute speed, in spite of crankcase temperatures of 248 degrees and more—that's 50 per cent above the heat your crankcase would ever show on the road—Socony De-waxed Motor Oil performed perfectly, kept its "body," reduced engine wear and carbon formation to a minimum.

For safe lubrication, for longer, smoother engine performance—use Socony De-waxed Motor Oil! Prepare now for the next real hot day. Then, keep your eye on the thermometer—and Socony!

Many Guests in Town—Several Attended Field Day—Enjoyed Trip Through Norway—Community Club Busy.

Rev. Douglas Betts, the Methodist pastor in the N. H. District, was a guest at the home of Mrs. A. A. Moore. Mr. Betts was returning from his vacation at his home in Allston, Mass. by motor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hamlin, Mrs. Maude L. Sanborn, Mrs. Pearl Bradbury, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Lyman of Waterbury, Conn., attended the Pomona Field Day at Fryeburg on Thursday, where they had four fine speakers. Some claim it was so interesting that they did not mind the heat.

Jack Phillips and his Kilby Club Orchestra are giving a dance at the Grange Hall on Friday, Aug. 14th, for the benefit of the Community Chest. This fund was started three years ago by Camp Towner.

Several ladies of the Community Club spent the day at the home of Mrs. Alice Bell, cutting hair and filling pillows for the needy. All were happy and busy and some brought home baskets on their hands.

A picnic lunch was enjoyed on her east porch at noon, where the glorious view is all about one.

The fine piece of State road built the past week is fully appreciated in this section, the only regret is that it could not have been built a greater distance. It surely was a noisy section while work was in progress, but results were brought to view rapidly. A good road is surely greatly needed from Waterford to North Bridgton and it is indeed gratifying to the residents of this section that they have made a good beginning.

Lena York has rented the lower part of her house for the month of August to two ladies from Philadelphia, Pa. They are friends of the Rich family, who have spent several summer in the York apartment.

Several of the camps in this section have a quarantine on outside visitors for fear of having Infantile Paralysis brought to the boys and girls, as this disease is raging again.

Mrs. Alfreda Abbott spent her seventy-ninth birthday, on August 5th, with her daughter, Mrs. Ida A. Holden. Mrs. Holden is improving in health.

W. W. Abbott has had one day the past week when he could not be dressed, but since has been able to get out to the porch.

Bear Mt. Grange held its regular meeting on Saturday evening. The following program was presented:

Kokosing Notes

In compliance with advice from the State Board of Health, Camp Kokosing will avoid contacts with other groups during this period of anxiety regarding the epidemic of Infantile Paralysis existing in the cities.

It is a great disappointment to the members of Camp Kokosing to have to announce the postponement of their Indian Pageant until another season. Instead, the camp will make personal contributions to augment the fund which was begun with their opera given for the benefit of the Waterford Vacation School.

These safety measures are adopted for the best protection of the girls who are summering in the camp.

NORTH LOVELL

Mrs. Isma Coleman and two children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McKee, Saturday night.

Prudent Bedard and family have returned to their home here from North Bridgton, where they have been working.

Some old furniture is to be sold with Dr. Watson as auctioneer.

Mrs. James Foster Agnew of New York sister of Miss Lyon, the nurse at Camp Kokosing, has been stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nelson for the past two weeks.

Miss Marion Noble of Detroit, Mich., who has been in Medford, Mass., visiting her cousin, Mrs. Ernest Brackett, came to Portland on Monday, where her aunt and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Irving E. Bell, met and enjoyed a short visit with her.

Albert W. Hamlin and wife attended the District K. of P. picnic in Bryant's Pond on Sunday. The Hamlins served their homemade ice cream during the day.

Mrs. Laura Shaw was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Greene on Friday.

Mrs. Lottie Lovejoy of Worcester, Mass., visited Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Greene a few days the first of the week. Mrs. Lovejoy is in Maine to attend the Antoine Reunion in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Messenger of Belmont, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burham and two children of Portland were Sunday callers on their aunt, Mrs. Martha P. Perry.

The repair on the interior of the Methodist church were completed last week. It is very attractive and we hope as soon as the paint has hardened it will be ready for use when religious services are held here.

South Paris

Joint Field Day

Oxford County Farm Bureau and Oxford Pomona Grange Met in South Paris

Many farmers and housewives attended the joint field day of the Oxford County Farm Bureau and Oxford Pomona Grange held at South Paris on August 5. There is always a crowd at these field days and this time it seemed as if there were more than ever before. They came from all directions and came early, and there were hundreds on hand when the time came for opening the program.

Two large slides took the air promptly at 9:30, starting the program off and continued to take up passengers during the day.

The rolling pin throwing contest was a source of much fun. This was won by Mrs. Anna Duley, South Paris. Each contestant was furnished with three rolling pins which she threw at a dummy some yards distant. Judges were on hand to pronounce the winner.

Rope pulling was another sport of the day. Two picked teams of ten men each pulled for one minute. One team was headed by Guy Bartlett, Farm Bureau chairman in East Bethel, the other team was led by Lon Wright, Newry, who is Pomona Grange Master. The team headed by Lon Wright won the pull.

Howard Shaw's South Paris Band provided music during the time devoted to sports.

At eleven o'clock all men were directed to the woodlot improvement area. Constant Agent Donald H. Ridley explained the need of thinning and the manner in which the demonstration was laid out. He then introduced W. E. Deringer, W. E. Deringer, York County Forestry Project Leader, who gave a good talk. Mr. Deringer has a mill of his own, and has done a great deal in the line of Forest Woodlot Improvement on his own land.

Mrs. Rena C. Bowles gave an excellent talk during the forenoon on the subject of child training.

As a part of the afternoon program, there was singing, led by Rev. W. I. Bull of North Waterford.

Lon Wright, master of Oxford Pomona, presided at the afternoon program. Visitors were welcomed by Ernest Talbot and V. W. Canham of the Lewiston Sun made an entertaining talk. A 4-H Club demonstration was given by Helen Crouse and Mabel Hersey of North Waterford on preparing supper.

The principal address of the afternoon was given by Bradford Redmond of Wisconsin, on the home, closing with Edgar Guest's poem on that theme. There were various exhibits about the farm which were significant. One was a field of alfalfa, with which some of the presenters were unacquainted. This field was seeded in 1928, and the first crop, in 1931, was a 3 tons per acre. There was also a showing and demonstration of draperies for the home. The exhibit of draperies was from B. Peck Co., of Lewiston. Miss Leona Martin in charge. Mrs. Harold Bailey of Norway had an exhibit of fancy work and sold quite a bit. The three Adult Poultry Clubs of Hiram, Norway and Mexico are again planning a tour for the benefit of all county poultry raisers.

The date set for the tour is next Friday, August 14. The program is outlined below. Most of the flocks to be visited have from 1,000 to 4,000 birds on range yearly. Two of the flock owners have Plymouth Rocks and the rest Rhode Island Reds. A great variety of equipment will be seen including different types of range shelters, colony houses, brooding equipment, house and range feed hoppers and automatic watering devices.

Two speakers are on the program during the noon hour. H. L. Richardson, Extension Poultry Specialist, will discuss the subject of poultry breeding. Warren Chadborn of Bridgton, an officer of the Maine Poultry Improvement Association, will explain the purpose of the organization and tell what is already being done in the interests of Maine Poultrymen. He will also assist in the organizing of an Oxford County unit if the poultrymen are ready to go ahead with it.

All poultrymen will meet at H. M. Goodwin's poultry farm, Norway, promptly at 9:30 a. m. standard time. Lunches should be brought and in case of rain, a raincoat.
